

Twelfth Night 2010

Llandinam JAN 9th

IN ST LLONIO'S CHURCH

Welcome

To St Llonio's from Rev Bob Pitcher

Winter Songs

With the voices of Linda Ward, Wendy Laws and Tricia Hughes.

St Uncumber

The story of one of the lesser known saints from storyteller Helen East and musician Rick Wilson.

The Camel's Tale

A brand new festive and seasonal poem from Jane Dards, specially composed for the occasion.

Mari Lwyd

An appearance of the traditional Welsh figure that marks the New Year. Songs from Rees Wesson and Pete Damsell.

Nos Galan

The first part of the evening ends with the traditional procession down the hill to the traditional strains of Nos Galan (Deck the Halls with Boughs of Holly).

IN LLANDINAM VILLAGE HALL

Wassail

Traditional songs to welcome in the New Year sung by the Wild Angels to the accompaniment of Hot Punch

Saint Nicholas

A traditional story from the renowned storyteller Helen East and musician Rick Wilson

Dancing

Easy dances to warm you up led by Pam Knight and Philip Freeman of TASC

Short Play

In the style of the Mummers Plays that were traditional Christmas entertainment with Pete Damsell, John Messenger and Ric Johnson.

Three Kings Cake

A spicy cake is traditionally served as part of the Feast of Epiphany. This is the Wild Angels' version.

Ceilidh

The evening finishes with some more traditional dances led by Alan Maxwell to the music of the Llandinam Village Band led by Rees Wesson.

The Mari Lwyd

... is an ancient Welsh custom. The figure and a party of revellers would go from house to house at New Year asking to be let in. The song was followed by a verse competition. TASC has adapted the idea and given it a new twist. Thanks to Josephine Lewis for providing the Mari Lwyd. The picture is from Llantrisant where Mick Tems re-introduced the custom some thirty years ago.

